"It is understood that most if not gift the Councilors have been agreed upon in caucus, and as the candidates are all poon the apot, there will be no delay in organizing this brauch.

You may judge of the crowd in this place when I inform you that the office seekers have actually crowded out the members of the Legislature from the boarding houses, and they have been obliged to go to Hatlowell. Under this new dynasty, applicants for office, instead of obtaining signatures to petitions, as formerly, have acteally brought in all their uncles and cousins, and atend to parry their chimalty storm.

A great body of Militia officers are here pushing their claims for Adjutant General, and when any claimant is fulled, he invariably falls back upon the office of Wurden of the State Prison, ed for this office, will be a caution.
